This Kindergarten narrative, written in the spring, relays a short series of loosely linked events in the order in which they occurred. The story begins with a problem (A cat was triing to git into a stor), which is resolved at the end of the piece (It opinD. the cat aet oll the melk.). Some of this story is told through the illustrations. The writer provides a reaction to what is happening by drawing a clearly angry store keeper, complete with a speech bubble containing the words, “My melk!”. The motivation of the cat is also clarified in the illustrations with an arrow labeled with the word, “eat” drawn between the cat and the milk. As specified by the standard, Kindergarten writing is often supported by drawing and labeling.
